

SAFC Female Centre of Excellence

Past and Present England Recognition 2008/09

SAFC Female Centre of Excellence is continuing to produce players that are being recognised at international level.

(Left) Sophie Halliday and (Above) Lucy Staniforth are attending England U17 Camp. Lucy has also played and scored in the U17 World Cup 2008 in New Zealand.

With the development of the female game continuing to grow 2008/09 season alone has seen 11 players, past and present representing the North East, predominantly from Durham County FA area. See pictures for more details on individuals.

(Above left to right) Lucy Bronze, Jordan Nobbs, Demi Stokes and Sophie Williams have been selected to attend England U19 Camp with Rachel Laws on standby. Both Lucy Bronze and Jordan Nobbs attended the U17 World Cup 2008 in New Zealand with Jordan Nobbs captaining all 6 games.

(Above) Helen Alderson has been a consistent member to the England U23 squad, including a trip to the U23 World Cup 2008 in Chile.
