

If they do this more than once, but not often enough to meet the period condition, then they will be eligible for an enhanced check but without any barred list check.

If they do not perform any of the activities mentioned above then they can apply for a basic check.

Drivers

There may be eligibility in some situations for drivers who transport children to and from sporting activities or events. If someone drives a vehicle that is being used only for the purpose of conveying children, including anyone supervising or caring for the children, to sporting activities or other arranged events then they will be eligible for an enhanced check with a children's barred list check as long as they are doing it often enough to meet the period condition.

If they do it more than once but not often enough to meet the period condition then they will be eligible for an enhanced check without a children's barred list check.

This does not apply to applicants who are driving children as part of a private arrangement, such as arrangements between parents.

Pool lifeguards

Pool lifeguards are eligible for DBS checks because, based on guidance from the Royal Life Saving Society in collaboration with National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC), their duties mean that they are expected to supervise the users of a pool which will include children. This is regardless of whether the children are accompanied by an adult.
